Welcome by the Rector

Dear distinguished participants, it is indeed my great pleasure to welcome you all to GALUH UNIVERSITY.

Galuh University/GU is located in a regency in West Java, Indonesia, in the midst of prevailing unique Sundanese culture-rich environment that attracts you to engage in. Celebrating GU's 20th anniversary, this first Ethnic Galuh University Summer Camp (1st EGUSC) offers you "HOME" to share your perspectives and experiences with others, your brothers and sisters from different spheres with different cultural backgrounds. At the same moment, you will also taste Sundanese meals and enjoy Sundanese attractions illuminated by Galuh-Sunda historical reflections. Of course,

YOUR PRESENCE IS OUR PRIDE!

Dr. H. Yat Rospia Brata, Drs., M. Si

Welcome by the VR

Dear PARTICIPANTS, differences among us make and prove this summer camp event unite us. Let's enjoy our being different in what we see in life by sharing our views in terms of cultural boundedness in more open-minded approaches to our real lives. Sundanese uniqueness with indigenous Galuh values inspiring our presence in this 1st EGUSC will bring us to the beauty of cooperation, collaboration, and mission in promoting world peace in the context of diversity in life dimensions. Cultural entities embedded in GALUH-SUNDA inheritances and communities remind us how we were in the past. The past is indeed the present and it is the future too. Be the smart ambassadors.

IMPORTANT

GENERAL
INFO

FLIGHTS/BUS/TRAIN

- We are not responsible for booking of flights/bus/train. The students must do this themselves.
- Please note that for Camp, All students must arrive in Bandung in the time frame/ window given: Arrival 04th April 2018.
- Please note that all students need to depart on the 07th of April (local) and 8th April 2018 (International). For those wishing to extend their stay it will be at their own expense and we will not be able to provide transportation to the Airport/ bus station/ train station.
- Please book your flights as soon as possible and Please email me your flight number/ airline name, Bus station and or train station, date & time of arrival in Bandung/Ciamis, date & time of departure from Bandung. Send your details to egusc2018@gmail.com

VISAS

- For citizens of China obtaining a visa is mandatory. For citizens of Vietnam, Malaysia, Laos, Thailand, Cambodia & the Philippines you will not require a visa (ASEAN). For those students requiring a visa, the letter of invitation will be sent. For those requiring visas please obtain the list of requirements from the Indonesia Embassy website in your country.

PERSONAL FINANCES

- Please remember that your accommodation for 3-4 nights (4th till 8th April) will be complimentary.
- Entire camp course is free.
- All camp transportation will be free.
- You will need a certain amount of money for personal expenses, laundry, private transportation in spare time, sometimes partaking in meals or refreshments that are not part of camp. Social activity and last but not least Shopping! Every individual comes from his/her own financial background so naming a figure is certainly not what I would want to do.

- The Indonesia Rupiah against US $ rate is easily available and updated on the currency conversion sites. Currently 1 US $ is approximately 13.769 rupiahs. Please bring US $ as they are changed everywhere without a problem. Other currencies might have a problem being converted here in Ciamis.
- Please change about 50 US $ into Indonesia Rupiah at the airport. The rest can be changed in Ciamis where there will be a better rate of conversion available. (Recommended but at your discretion).
- Please remember safety lockers will not be provided with your rooms so keep your money and other personal belongings safe as we are not responsible for any damages or loss of stolen goods.

MEDICAL

- Health care and hospitals in Ciamis exclude International insurance. It is mandatory to obtain travel insurance from your travel agent before travelling. We will need to see proof of this before your arrival here. We are not responsible for any illness or accident that may befall a student during his/her duration at the camp. With the proper insurance we can provide you with quality medical care should an untoward incident occurs.

MEALS

- Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner will be served at set timings at different venues which will be shown to you when you arrive. Please note that observing these timings is important as meal services will only be provided during the time prescribed. The meals will mostly comprise of Indonesian food and we have tried to cater to all religious groups. Special meal requests will not be provided.

GENERAL CODE OF CONDUCT

A general code of conduct is to be followed at all times which are befitting a university student who has been selected for his/her academic and social ability. Failure to conform to proper social behavior or consistent breaking of camp rules and regulations will lead to disbarment from the camp resulting in deportation.

1. The camp schedule is to be followed at all times (You deserve 32 contact hours certification). Exceptions will be granted upon request from camp committee.
2. All camp rules & regulations which will be provided upon your arrival have to be followed.
3. Reasonable behavior to be exhibited towards fellow students and Instructors alike.
4. Aggression or violence or rude/obscene behavior and language will not be tolerated what so ever.
5. The use of mobile phones and all electronic gadgets will be strictly prohibited during some stages of the camps. Those stages will be notified. Photography will be allowed at most places but not during a camp class.
6. The use of alcohol is not permitted on the campus. You are free to do what you will outside of campus and only after the day's activities are over.
7. There are certain areas for smokers inside the campus where they can go in their break time.
8. The use of narcotics at any time or any place will lead to immediate termination and will be liable to criminal proceedings being filed against the perpetrator.
9. The camp is about peace and harmony. An actual effort and display of the theme by all participants will be encouraged and appreciated. Awareness and respect of all cultures and ethnic backgrounds is primary.
10. There will be a number of Indonesian students participating in the camp. They have been tasked to make you feel at home and explain to you about the education experience that they relate to in Indonesia as compared to the rest of the world. The goal is to forge friendships that last forever and come in useful even after all of you have completed your education and entered the “working world”.

ACCOMMODATION

- All students will be lodged in hotel Tyara Plaza Ciamis. The rooms are all air-conditioned with closet and bathroom.
- The rooms will be on twin sharing or triple sharing basis. Some rooms are triple bed rooms and some are smaller meant for two students. Rooms will be shared keeping in mind gender.
- Please note that students from different nationalities will be sharing rooms. No rooms will be shared by students belonging to one country. Room allocation will be done by the GRC and the summer camp committee. The purpose of this exercise is to further enhance the International experience.
- We will be grateful if requests to change roommates will not be made to us. Only in the case of an extremely necessary situation will we permit that request and after having consulted all parties.
- The Hotel Tyara Plaza has its own set of regulations which must be adhered to completely. All students will get a copy of those regulations at the time of check in.
- Laundry is not included with the room and we do not have a facility to provide ironing in the room. Students will be shown where they can get their laundry done from at their own expense.

CLOTHING

- Every student must bring one set of their National Dress which has to be worn at the Opening ceremony on the 05th of April. (Mandatory)(Formal)
- Please bring collared shirts and trousers (male) and smart casual (female) for camp sessions.
- Some camp sessions will require T-shirts and sneakers.
- Please bring caps/hats/joggers/sandals/casual shoes or crocs etc
- For those of you who will find time for swimming please bring swimming attire because the hotel provides the swimming pool. (Not mandatory)

• Dress code :

- Welcome dinner : Smart Casual
- 5 April 2018 : National Dress (from your own country)/Formal Outfits (Skirts for female and Trousers for male non jeans)
- 6 April 2018 : Shirt/jogger/sneakers

Sundanese FOOD

Karedok is a raw vegetable salad in peanut sauce from West Java, Indonesia. It is one of the Sundanese dish. It originally included cucumbers, bean sprouts, cabbage, legumes, and small green eggplant, covered in peanut sauce dressing, but there are now many variations.. Karedok is widely served as daily food in the Sundanese family, usually eaten with hot rice, tofu, tempeh and krupuk. Nowadays karedok can be found in many variation from hawkers carts, stalls (warung) as well as in restaurants and hotels both in Indonesia and worldwide.

Nasi Tutug Oncom or Sangu Tutug Oncom is also known as Nasi T.O. It is made from rice stirred with fried oncom or burn. The serving of these foods is generally warm. In Sundanesse language, word tutug means mashing. The process of stirring rice with oncom became the name of a food type known as tutug oncom.

Seblak is an Sundanesse savoury and spicy dish made of wet krupuk (traditional Indonesian crackers) cooked with protein sources (egg, chicken, seafood or beef) in spicy sauce. Seblak can be acquired from restaurants, warungs or gerobak (cart) street vendors. It is one of the most popular street foods in Indonesia, especially in Bandung and Jakarta.

Saroja is one of the typical food of Ciamis, West Java made from rice flour. This snack food is usually made on big days like holidays, weddings, and others. Saroja can also be used as a daily snack as friends to drink coffee or tea.

Saroja has a distinctive shape and flavor that is round like a flower.

Cireng, which stands for aci goreng, is one of special foods from West Java. It's made from tapioca flour as the main ingredient of it. Cireng is usually filled with oncom, traditional fermented Indonesian food from soybeans, and mashed beans. But now, cireng can be filled with various flavors like spicy chicken, spicy meat ball, sausages, cheese, etc.

Galendo is traditional Sundanese food originated from ciamis district. Galendo is made from cooked coconut pulp. Galendo is usually served as a snack or dessert. Currently there are many gift shops that provide galendo.

Gurandil cake is usually green and raw tapioca flour made by steamed and served with a sprinkling of grated coconut.
